

George Hutcheon Hibernation Airgun Match

Sponsored by Richmond Rod And Gun Club

November 5-6,2022

Place: Richmond Rod and Gun Club 7400 River Road Richmond B.C. (Southwest of #3 Rd & Cambie Rd)

Eligibility: Open to all BC Resident competitors only. Membership in B.C.T.S.A. and S.F.C organization is required. 15 shooters per relay (total 30 shooters).

Course of Fire: Match consists of 3 complete courses of fire for an aggregate match score. 90 minutes for open classes, Ladies and Junior competitors on returning targets. A 15 Minute preparation time and sighting time starts before the match.

Classification: Competitors will be classified according to their SFC shooting cards. Those unable to produce a valid card will compete in the Expert Class.

Rules: Standard ISSF Rules will apply with the use of paper targets. Pistol will shoot 2 shots per target Rifle will shoot 1 shot per target

Airguns: All Airguns must meet ISSF Specification. Airguns will be subject to inspection. The same airgun must be used for all 3 courses of fire in order to qualify for the aggregate score, unless it becomes disabled and then may be replaced with approval of the Chief Range Officer

Schedule:

Range Setup Thursday November 3th,2022 @ 6:30pm (Volunteers must be pre-registered)

Gun check Friday November 4th,2022 @ 6-7pm. Practice 7-8:30pm.

Match Day:

NO SPECTATORS OR COACHES ALLOWED IN RANGE AREA DUE TO COVID PROTOCOLS**

Athletes need to prefill air cylinders must do so before arrival to pre-screen area (space is limited pre-register required)

Athletes arrive to pre -screen health area 10 mins before relay- fully dressed and ready to start relay

Athletes will be designated to pre-registered position and must stay in position area for full duration of the match. Once match is completed athletes will be escorted out of facility one at a time.

match will continue as scheduled

A Relay – Saturday 8:15am & 1:15pm Sunday 8:30am

B Relay - Saturday 11:00am & 3:30pm Sunday 11:15am

These are “Athletes to the line” times, then there is 15 Min Prep time, then match start

Awards immediately after range tear down (Volunteers assigned) – approx. 1:30pm on Sunday November 6,2022Awards given out at ceremony located outside of main building

Masks are OPTIONAL within the facility.